

Los Angeles Times

GOLF | LAS VEGAS

Las Vegas: Great golf at several price levels

Buy, buy birdie.

By Ken Van Vechten, Los Angeles Times
12:00 AM PST, December 03, 2006

Las Vegas golf pricing has undergone a sticker-shock-inducing shift of San Andean proportions. Thankfully, not all that glitters is gilded, and great plays can be had for five Bens or even just one.

Greens fees quoted below are winter rack rates, which, in most cases, are as high as they get — except for Shadow Creek, where the rate is year-round ...

...With three courses by Pete Dye and a to-the-horizon setting worthy of a John Ford western, Las Vegas Paiute Golf Resort just might be the best, most complete golf spot in southern Nevada. Snow Mountain, the resort's first course, is an exercise in sleight-of-hand routing, risk-reward doglegging and the occasional nod to old-school design, as in the cape hole 10th.

www.lvpaiutegolf.com, (800) 711-2833; $169